

This is a FREE event. You do need to register so you get your tickets

Come for a fun packed evening starring Our Talented Knights.
There will be comedy, singing, dancing, Each group of at least 4
Knights will choose their own style of family friendly entertainment.
Similar to America's Got Talent, there will be 3 judges who will critique the acts upon completion of their performance. They will give a score to each act and the members of the audience will have a chance to vote too.

"There will be Ballot Boxes for each act that audience members can place their votes in. Winners will be determined by a combination of the Judges and audience votes. You will receive one free vote with your entrance ticket. Additional votes can be purchased on site Thursday evening."